47 MINERS, DEAD 3 WEEKS, BROUGHT UP

CITY PREPARING TO GREET GRAND LODGE VISITORS

Rooms for Many More are Needed, Committees
Report Today.

TO DECORATE TOWN

2,000 Guests Expected for
I. O. O. F. and Rebekah
Meet in October.

Committees canvassing Ada to secure entertainment for 2,000 I. O. O. F. and Rebekah delegates expected here October 2, 3 and 4 for a meeting of the grand lodge and assembly of those two organizations, reported early today that places for only 200 had been secured.

Work will be continued until accommodations for all of the prospective guests have been secured.

"Ada must realize what this means to the town and open her doors with a will," one member of the committees said. Delegates who will attend the convention expect to pay for their accommodations and we urge every one who has an available room to cooperate with us."

Those who will take some of the lodge visitors have been asked to telephone 86.

A decoration committee, outside of the local lodges, will supervise getting the city into shape for receiving the lodge men and women. It is composed of Sam Schlenker, Lowrey Harrell and F. J. McFarland. These men will work among the merchants to get store fronts and streets in gala array before the first visitors arrive.

Big Officials Coming

Outstanding officials in the state and lodge government will be here for the grand lodge meeting. It is thought possible that Governor J. B. A. Robertson may address delegates at an early meeting. Officials of the I. O. O. F. grand lodge who will be in attendance include R. U. Livesay, Anadarko, grand master; G. W. Bruce, Guthrie, grand secretary; Thomas G. Andrews, Chandler, grand representative; and W. W. Osgood, Muskogee, deputy grand master.

Rebekah officers include Belle Black, Oklahoma City, president of the Rebekah assembly; Martha E. Reger, Enid, secretary of the assembly; Ida Smith, Guthrie, treasurer of the assembly; and Cora A. Cain, Savannah, vice-president of the assembly.

Headquarters for grand lodge and assembly officers will be maintained in the Harris hotel. Registration and assignment committees will be in the Chamber of Commerce. Opening session of the convention will be Monday, October 2, in the college auditorium. Grand lodge sessions will be held at the McSwain theatre and Rebekah assembly meetings at the First Methodist church.

SCHOOLS TO AID WORKING BOYS TO EARN AND LEARN

Plans are going forward for the organization of a night school for boys who are unable to attend high school during the regular study periods. It was announced by Prof. W. A. Hill, principal of the local high school this morning. If enough boys get interested the school will be organized, he said.

Boys who have not completed high school, and who want to take up one or two studies at night should get in touch with Mr. Hill at once.

One or more courses could be given in from one to two hours recitation each evening. It is pointed out. A boy who works during the day could easily spare this amount of time during the winter months.

One or more teachers may be required, according to the number of students who join the classes. All sessions would be held at the high school, where the regular classroom, library laboratory equipment, and general school recitation facilities can be used.

In case the school is organized it will be the first time such a step has been taken here. City Superintendent of schools Hickman has given his approval to the plan and M. Hill declared he was willing to do all he could to help the boys learn while they earn.

Hay fever is on the increase in the western states.

Poor Valentino! He Had to Change Without Privacy

NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—Having heard why Rudolph Valentino, motion picture star, thinks it would be unjust to grant the Famous Players-Lasky corporation an injunction to prevent him from selling his services elsewhere, the supreme court justice has given both sides until Monday to file briefs.

One day, out on location, Valentino was forced to make eight changes of costume in the great open spaces, his attorney said. A limousine—closed—would have materially aided his privacy, the counsel declared.

There was no lounge in Valentino's dressing room as is customary in the case of stars, the spokesman for the actor-hero declared, and between scenes he was forced to rest on the floor. Valentino was required to pay for the services of a tiler to teach him to act around a dangerous bull in making a Spanish play.

LOCAL ELKS RENT HALL IN M'SWAIN

Lodge Home Will be Small
But Comfortable, Ada
Members Report.

A new home for the Ada Elks lodge has been selected. It will be the new room on the second floor facing Main street, of the McSwain theatre building, according to an announcement this morning by officials of the lodge. An executive session was held last night at the office of Ed Haraway.

An investigation of every prospective building in the city had failed to reveal any place that would suit the Elks' needs. They recently gave up their home in the Pontotoc building on East Main street to the Osage-Cherokee Cotton Oil company, in order to permit that company to open general offices here.

The new home will be too small to make it really comfortable for the large Elks membership, it was pointed out, but this was the best place that could be found. A steel stairway will be built on the outside of the building, affording a private entrance to the room, which only recently has been finished.

A radio set is being purchased by the members. It will be set up in the room. Other features of the home will be the library and reading tables, card tables, smoking parlor, and ladies rest room. A small roof garden will be established on the portico at the entrance to the building. Pool tables, billiard tables and other means of entertainment will be provided as extensively as the space will permit.

It is hoped, members said, that Elks and their families will take advantage of the new home, using the card tables for bridge parties and the radio and library for evenings of entertainment. The room was rented for a year, at the end of which time the local lodge plans to have a home built.

MUSICIANS MAY PLACE ADA HIGH FIRST IN STATE

With several new instruments arriving for the Ada high school band and with beginners and regulars meeting for daily practice, Prof. Hill of the high school is confident that the band and orchestra this year will be a little more efficient than any organization of this character the school has ever produced.

He was highly pleased with the type of new instruments being purchased, especially by the beginners. In nearly every instance instruments are of high quality. Heretofore this has not been the case, he points out, and the better instruments will give the band an advantage.

A new snare drum, Helican BB flat base, and baritone have been received and one or two other instruments are being ordered. Practice will be started by the regulars within a few days on special music in an effort to take state honors this year. Second place was awarded the local last year. First place is the goal for this season.

A new cello, the first ever used in the orchestra together with many other new instruments, are boosting prospects. The students will be ready to appear in public within a short time.

TURKISH ARMIES LOSE ADVANTAGE THROUGH DELAYS

British Military Experts
Seize Opportunity to Strengthen Force.

BIG FLEET GATHERING

Christian Refugees Given
Opportunity to Leave
Stricken Smyrna.

(By the Associated Press)

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 19.—British military experts here believe that whatever opportunity the Turkish nationalists had for a coup against Constantinople has been lost in view of the quick strengthening of the allied defense in the neutral zone.

All the available British warships have left Malta for Constantinople and a regiment from Egypt and one from Gibraltar are on the way.

Forces landed from the British ships have already entrenched, bringing the strength of the British land forces to ten thousand. Two Italian battalions are expected soon. The advance guards of the Turks is reported to be 30 miles south of Chanak, and the army 50 miles.

Jugo-Slavia has mobilized three divisions. Greece may be requested to participate in the defense of the straits.

A mission to send vessels to Smyrna to take on board refugees has been granted by the Turks to the allied powers, the United States and Greece. Males between the ages of 15 to 45 years are expected and it is presumed that the nationalists intend to use them for military purposes.

The situation in Smyrna is still of grave character. The food stocks have become exhausted and the people are eating horse flesh. American relief workers distribute flour and the famished refugees devour it raw.

ENGLAND TO UNDERTAKE MILITARY MOVE ALONE

(By the Associated Press)
LONDON, Sept. 19.—The British cabinet takes the attitude that Greece will undertake military action on its own, independent of France and Italy.

WILL REPLY ON DIPLOMATIC MOVE

(By the Associated Press)
PARIS, Sept. 19.—The cabinet went formally on record as being opposed to any form of military action as a means of settlement in the Turkish-Greek situation. It emphasized the necessity of reaching an agreement through diplomatic channels.

State Labor Heads Attempt to Draft Unity Strike Plan

ENID, Sept. 19.—An attempt to have passed a "unity of action" resolution calling upon all unions to walk out whenever a strike is called for any one branch featured the morning's session Tuesday of the State Federation of Labor convention.

The resolution was referred to the resolutions committee which substituted "closer relations" between the affiliated bodies. The sentiment of the convention was strongly against the first resolution.

They Smile Before Death

Group of the unfortunate miners taken by movie camera at mouth of Argonaut mine.

Smiles of good cheer lingered on the faces of these 47 men as they posed for a movie camera only a few minutes before descending into the Argonaut mine, at Jackson, Calif., from which they were raised as corpses today after being imprisoned more than three weeks in a gas-filled drift 4,200 feet underground.

These are the victims of America's greatest mine tragedy. Rescue teams which burrowed determinedly through a rock wall of great thickness which cut the miners off from escape, refused to rest until they had penetrated the barrier and learned the fate of their comrades.

GLOOM OVER GRID CAMP IS LIFTING

Ada High Team Rounding
Rapidly Into Shape
as Real Machine.

Gloom that has been hanging over the high school football camp was beginning to lift today as the boys got back into their old routine in preparing for the opening game here with Okmulgee. Poor financial support, which has been stalling the team in the face again this year, was expected to be eliminated.

Interest in the welfare of the team, which promises to be as good as any previous squad, is growing.

Students have failed to show the usual amount of enthusiasm, however. Sale of tickets for football purposes has been slow and steps are being taken to boost the raising of the necessary finance. It will be smaller this year than before authorities point out, in spite of the fact that new equipment had to be purchased.

Several bad holes in the line are being eliminated and the weakness at quarterback is being improved. If given the necessary support and encouragement, the Ada high team promises to produce results that will be entirely satisfactory to the school and city.

Absence of King from the line has made it necessary to use a new man at tackle. Several second string men are being tried out and it is expected that the gap will be fairly well filled. Morris is showing up well at the guard position left vacant by Burk, and Wright is making a good showing at the tackle position formerly held by Kreiger.

All Are Improving.
Baker and Gregg are battling for the right end position while Rayburn is improving his defensive and offensive efficiency at left end. Molloy is holding his old pivot position and promises to be better able to bolster the squad, with a hard season's experience to guide him.

Potts is having his trouble in the back field. Inexperience of the quarterback position has worked a hardship there. Carr and Nettles were making a good showing in their contest for right half, but steps were being taken to work one of them into taking the place of utility quarterback in case of emergency. Hargis, altho with little backfield experience, is working hard and showing up well at fullback. Willoughby is making rapid strides in preparing himself for his old right guard position.

OKLAHOMA MAN IS HELD ON SWINDLE CHARGES IN EAST

(By the Associated Press)
PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 19.—Raymond C. Ferguson, charged with having swindled a priest and other residents of Chicago of large sums, was held without bail here today to await extradition proceedings. The police say his operations have netted him more than $100,000.

Ferguson was arrested at a hotel where he was staying with his wife. He told the detectives his wife was a famous motion picture actress, but declined to reveal her screen name.

ONCE IN OKLAHOMA OIL LAND PROJECT

CHICAGO, Sept. 19.—Raymond Ferguson, under arrest in Philadelphia, is said to have been engaged in an oil venture in Oklahoma before coming to Chicago where he began a bungalow building campaign in a suburb.

Phyllis Reed, a show girl, is said to have disappeared simultaneously with Ferguson's departure.

M'ALESTER KLAN CHASES TROTTER

Missing Minister Once
Member of Order is Suspicion Now.

(By the Associated Press)
McALESTER, Sept. 19.—Correspondence left behind by Rev. J. C. Trotter when he escaped from jail Monday morning may furnish a clue to his probable destiny and instructions have been wired to officers to watch for him.

Trotter appears to have had some official connection with the administrative officers of the Ku Klux Klan when in this state and much of the mail and telegrams received pertained to the affairs of this organization. One message received from California which extended him a welcome was evidently in response to the solicitation of Trotter before his arrest on charges here.

Members of the Ku Klux here are openly expressing resentment against the minister who they declare worked his way into their confidence and ranks and it is said this organization is to offer an additional reward to swell the 200 new outstanding for Trotter's capture.

JEWELL MAY IRON OUT RAIL TANGLE

Shopcraft Head to Reach Agreement With N. Y.
Central, Belief.

(By the Associated Press)
CHICAGO, Sept. 19.—Adjustment of misunderstandings and differences which delayed the expected settlement of the railroad shopmen's strike on some of the roads favorable to the Baltimore peace arrangement was apparent today.

There were rising hopes that Bert Jewell, the shopcrafts leader, could iron out with the New York Central lines, differences which prevented an agreement between striking shopmen and the roads which formed that system.

These hopes were strengthened when the Southern railroad, the Mobile and Ohio, and the Monongahela fell in line with the roads adopting the Baltimore plan and signed the agreement. Many strikers on these roads were expected back today at the jobs they left July 1.

The "association of Rock Island shop employees" is being formed by employees now in the service of the Chicago, Rock Island, and Pacific road according to the president of the road. Former employees now on strike will be given an opportunity until October 1, to re-enter the service with past and pension privileges, he said, asserting that returning strikers will not be restored to their old positions on the seniority list.

ONE THIRD OF EVIDENCE THROWN OUT OF COURT

(By the Associated Press)
CHICAGO, Sept. 19.—With more than one third of the government's evidence in its injunction suit against the striking railway shopmen ruled out by Judge Wilkerson, attorneys for the strike leaders continued their assault on Attorney General Daugherty's bill today.

In throwing out of the court 233 affidavits recounting violence in connection with the strike, Judge Wilkerson sustained the contentions of the defense counsel that the persons making the affidavits did not know how they were to be used in court.

AMERICANIZING MOVE IN SCHOOLS MAY FAIL

OKLAHOMA CITY, Sept. 19.—It is probable that the proposed amendment to the state constitution to compel all persons to attend public schools in which only the English language is used in teaching will fail of being put on the election ballots because the number of names have not been signed to the petitions, according to C. J. Kendle, assistant secretary of state.

SCRIBBLED NOTE TELLS PATHETIC TALE OF FINISH

Earth Claims Awful Toll
From Men Entombed
in Argonaut.

WAS WORST DISASTER

Dying Men Struggle Until End to Erect Barrier to Keep Out Gas.

(By the Associated Press)

JACKSON, Calif., Sept. 19.—Jackson, mining town in the mother lode country, has paid the toll demanded of those who delve in the earth for gold, and stands unafraid, but not dry-eyed today.

Forty-seven of her men died in the Argonaut mine early on the morning of August 28, she learned last night, and today she awaited the bringing of their bodies from the rock tunnel, walled in with flimsy bulkheads of their own building, that has been their tomb for three weeks.

It was California's worst mine disaster, in one of California's greatest gold producers.

Three weeks ago last Sunday night, men deep in the Argonaut believed they smelled smoke. A shift boss took two men and went to investigate. They found the shaft afire at the 3600 foot level, braved death from gas, and were carried through the fire to the top of the mine. Then began the work of rescue for the men below, for the fire blocked the shaft and prevented the escape of the miners.

Strong Brotherhood.

Men came from all over the west to offer their services, the curious fellowship of miners bringing hearty offers of service from all who could get to Jackson. The Kennedy Mining company, operators of an adjoining shaft, drank the bitterness of a lawsuit in its willingness to be of service. For many weary days rescue crews drove through the choked tunnel that once had connected the two mines or battered at the rock separating one of the Kennedy's drifts from the Argonaut's 4200 foot level. Yesterday a drill was driven through the last barrier of rock into the Argonaut, the opening was enlarged so that a rescue crew could pass, and all day explorations went on without any result.

The levels were cleared, there was no sign of any miner left in them, either dead or alive.

The rescue men, hampered by their oxygen helmets and the heat of the underground workings, turned their attention to exploring the cross cuts. In one they found a bulkhead that had not been there when the men went below that fatal night.

Their Last Work.

The rescuers pressed on. They found another bulkhead, not built of planks and timbers and stuffed with torn clothing like the first, but erected of earth, rock and debris. It was a pitiful structure, gaps in it so large that the rescuers could see through it.

Before those who waited above for news of their loved ones knew even that the rescuers had broken through the bulk head, word came that the bodies of 42 men had been found and counted.

Not long afterwards word came up that the other five also had been found and dead.

Records scrawled on paper by one man and scratched on a timber by another showed they had lived but little more than three hours after erecting their pitiful barricades. Saddest of all was the mute record of the bare beginning of the third bulkhead, when gas drove them away from the scene of the second.

The Red Cross has received a fund of $8,000 for the miners' dependents and it is estimated that where a miner left a widow or child the California state compensation insurance fund will pay an average of approximately $4,200 to dependents. The Argonaut Mining company had insured its employees in the state fund.

THE SOLDIERS' BONUS?

It is apparently certain that the president will veto the bonus bill. It is also certain that the house will promptly pass it over his veto. The senate is the unknown factor in the problem. While that body passed the measure by a more than two-thirds majority it was stated at the time that some of the senators voted in favor of it knowing that the president would veto it and then when it came back to the senate they would vote to sustain the veto. Such is the game of politics. It is admitted that the vote will be very close either way but just which way it will finally go is uncertain.

The manner in which the bonus bill has been framed and handled is the rankest example of political cowardice on record. The majority for the bonus in some form was overwhelming, because the congressmen feared the vote of the soldiers in case nothing was done, but when it came to providing ways and means of providing funds to meet the enormous expenditure involved they feared the wrath of the tax payers. It was plain that more taxes meant the loss of many political heads and saving their heads was the first care of the congressmen. Hence they hit upon the expedient of passing the buck to some future congress. The soldiers were to be given the government's I. O. U. and then some future congress would have the job of raising the money to redeem these promises to pay.

This plan means that the soldiers will realize comparatively little from the measure in case it becomes a law, for most of them will have sold their claims long before they are paid and the speculators will be the chief beneficiaries in the end. However, perhaps it will serve to enable a lot of congressmen to return to congress and that is the chief consideration with most of the crew anyway.

With men of courage in congress the bill would have been passed long ago in a form under which the boys would have had their money before now.

BRAZIL CELEBRATES

Brazil is now celebrating its first century of independence. That Big South American republic was originally a Portuguese colony. When Napoleon's armies conquered the little kingdom the king fled to Brazil and took up his abode among his American subjects. Things here were so much to his liking that when Napoleon went down in defeat and the king could return to Portugal he went back long enough to turn his European crown over to his daughter while he continued to reign in Brazil. His son succeeded him later and held the throne until 1889 when he was driven out by a revolution and Brazil became a republic. Kings were never popular in America no matter how wisely they ruled.

As a republic Brazil has had fewer revolutions than most Latin-American countries and has progressed in a tranquil manner. Her resources are simply without limit but have scarcely been touched yet. In course of time the world will draw heavily on these resources as a result of which Brazil will become one of the wealthiest nations on the globe.

No matter what may be the merits of the cause of the miners or that of the mine owners, the public is being forced to protect itself by getting away from the use of coal as far as possible. Sometime ago some large office buildings in New York announced their intention to use fuel oil hereafter. This in itself meant the loss of some big customers by the coal men and is just a straw showing the way the wind is blowing. Railroads are getting away from coal and using oil. Henry Ford's shutdown rather than pay the profiteering price is the strongest protest yet uttered. It is claimed that there are too many mines and miners. This may be but if the public is expected to pay for that it will lead to a revolt that will close a lot more mines. The public has stood for much but there is a limit to its patience and ability to pay.

Of course hard work is the foundation of success, but this alone is not sufficient. A horse on a treadmill takes many steps in course of a day but at night he is just where he started. Work that counts must be directed towards the accomplishment of some definite result and not just working a treadmill. A man's mind must be trained to search out the best methods of doing things and to grasp new ideas, instead of just making the rounds of a circle. There is no chance for the man who thinks he knows everything worth while and who does not seek to learn all he can about a subject.

One hears very little about any name on the Republican ticket except that of John Fields. Apparently the Republicans realize that half a loaf is better than no loaf and if they can elect the governor they will call that half and not worry about the defeat of the rest of the ticket.

"BIRDS OF FEATHER"

The Forum of the Press

Exposing Profiteers
 Kansas City Star-Journal
 If one half of what American Legion investigators are now publicly charging is true, the fact that profiteers who fattened at the expense of the government have not yet been prosecuted and made to disgorge is even a worse national scandal than we had supposed all along.

The Legion investigators are mentioning names. They do this doubtless because, as they say, most men who had dealings with the government were honest. The number who did not hesitate to make use of their official positions to benefit themselves and their friends is large, however, and the tragic part of it is that they are still free men. Republicans blamed the Wilson administration for not prosecuting the grafters and now that they are in power they themselves are doing nothing.

"There is nothing more contemptible in the whole history of the American people," says the Columbus Dispatch. "They (the profiteers and grafters) robbed their country with all the ruthlessness of the Hun. The swag is still in their possession, and none of them has been punished. It is not strange that the soldiers felt, when they returned home, that something was coming to them, and everybody would have been happy if the illicit gains could have been taken from the profiteers and given to the men who did so much to win the war."
 Let's have all the facts exposed.

The Road Hog
 (Tulsa World)
 Everybody who goes out upon the roads in a car has met them. If he comes meeting you, he will stick as near the center of the road as possible. If he is ahead of you and you desire to pass, he disregards your signal, hogs all of the road and yet refuses to hasten his pace.

He is responsible for more profanity and more accidents than all the other drivers put together. At night he will flash on his glaring lights, hold the middle of the road and crowd you into the ditch if possible. On many, many occasions he does cause serious accidents. He imagines the roads were built for his special benefit, has no consideration for his fellows and ought to be hanged up by his thumbs until he learns by heart the true definition of courtesy.

There is a law designed for him. There is a law requiring any motorists to allow another to pass when proper signal is given. There have been some arrests in different parts of Oklahoma recently. There ought to be many for there are many of these road hogs. If you encounter one of them, who refuses to give you your share of the road who refuses to "lay over" and permit you to go on your way, take his number and name and swear out a warrant for him.

Wars and Rumors of Wars
 (Hugo News)
 "There shall be wars and rumors of wars," the Bible says, before the end of time shall come. Just how long before the end of time the good book does not indicate, but from the wars and rumors of wars that now infest the globe some of us may be inclined to think that the end is not far off.

Prospects of another general world conflict, kindled from the blood lust of the "terrible Turk," are certainly not conducive of general optimism. With the people of the world in a state of unrest already it would be hard to imagine the devastation which another conflict would cause.

"THE ICE MAN IS A NICE MAN," RAN THE SONG; THIS ONE'S GRID STAR.

Bill Bruett ready to make a run around end with 100 per cent.

Bill Bruett, booked to succeed up the duties of a store job last summer to take up the duties of an the University football team, is ready ice man to toughen himself for the grid season. Bruett passed football season.

"DARK HORSE" WINS AUTO CLIMB

Noel Bullock rounding one of the dangerous curves on the peak.

Noel Bullock, figured to have only an outside chance in the Pike's Peak auto climbing contest, sprung a surprise by winning the race in 14 minutes and 50 seconds, fifteen seconds ahead of King Riley, his nearest competitor. The course was 12 1/2 miles over a winding hill with 108 curves.

Americans may well hope that further war may be averted, for our country would almost inevitably be dragged into the maelstrom. The day is none when the United States could calmly stand off and watch the fight. Our interests are so great and widespread that infringement of our rights on the part of some one or group of the combatants would be practically inevitable.

If the near east trouble resolves itself into a war with the Turks and Bolsheviks on one side and Christian nations on the other, America would be duty bound to be one of the first to take up arms. Even if the impending conflict is only a struggle to internationalize Constantinople and keep the Dardanelles open the United States will be virtually interested.

The American flag is now common on the seas of commerce. America must buy from and sell to the nations of the east and near east. Constantinople and the Dardanelles once more in the possession of fanatical Muslims would not be a pleasant spectacle. It would be unthinkable.

The near east problem is actually one of the most delicate with which diplomats have been confronted in recent years. The world war was kindled from an accident much less in actual importance.

It may be that the United States, assuming the role of the friendly mediator, can pour oil on the waters, but it is doubtful. The only power to soothe the turbulent Turk is represented by a well equipped, well trained army.

If another world conflict is precipitated the end of time might as well come because what is left of the world after such a struggle wouldn't be worth worrying about.

GIRL NOW WELL AND STRONG

Daughter Took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as Mother Advised

Wauseon, Ohio.—"My daughter always had backache and leg-ache at certain periods and could not be on her feet at those times. We read about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound doing girls so much good so she began to take it. That is two years ago and she is a different girl since then able to do any work she wants to do—although she is still careful not to do heavy work—and so well and strong. We recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to all mothers with ailing daughters, and I give you permission to publish this letter as a testimonial."—Mrs. A. M. BURKHOLDER, Route No. 2, Box 1, Wauseon, Ohio.

Something out of balance will affect the finest clock, causing it to gain or lose. The proper adjustment made, all is well. So it is with women. Some trouble may upset you completely.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will correct the cause of the trouble and disagreeable symptoms will disappear as they did in the case of Mrs. Burkholder's daughter.

MOTHERS—it is worthy of your confidence.

SMALL EXPLOSION IN OFFICE CAUSES DAMAGE

Because its safety valve was stopped, a vulcanizer in the office of Dr. F. R. Laird, dentist, at 101 1-2 East Main street, blew up this morning, tore a shelf from the wall nearby, broke out two windows, and caused other small damages. The apparatus was used in making and repairing sets of false teeth, and was operated by a gas burner.

Two women who smoked during one of Wagner's operas were ejected from a German theatre.

Quality--Style--Value A Peerless Trinity Distinguishing Our New Fall Modes

We must have the stock, our lines must be "just right," else those many women who have already availed themselves of our new Apparel showings for Fall would not have bought of us.

Not once, but many times, the past week, customers have remarked on the wondrous beauty, the smart stylings and the extreme reasonableness in price of our Fall Modes.

We ask only that we be permitted to show you these beautiful garments—the Suits, the Coats, the Dresses—after that we know you will be convinced of the truth of our statement here.

THE SUITS

There is no fashion law that rules the ways of Fall Tailleurs—that is why they're so attractive. Their diversity of line and jacket length, of garniture and fabric hue makes them so. In the new whims we show them for Fall 1922.

THE COATS

Rich luxurious affairs or simply styled and strictly tailored, as you choose—the story of the Coats for Fall.

$9.50 to $89.50

THE FROCKS

The greatest thrill of a new Frock comes now, at the very start of Autumn when there are so many and such wonderful new whims to choose from—the draped silhouette, the slim-line models, the puckered crepes and the braided modes.

Endeavors Entertained.

Christian Endeavors of the First Presbyterian church were delightfully entertained Saturday evening with a party at the home of Miss Eddie May Horn.

Modern games were played for an hour and a half, then delicious refreshments were served. Guests included Misses Ora Faust, Gene Seales, Mildred Seales, Harrie Lee
King, Audrey Whitwell, Elizabeth
Wimbish, Juanita Ford, Emma B.
Gregg, Margaret Chilcutt, Pauline
McClure, Lady Percy Shaw, Frances
George, Gladys Morris and Ed Gwin,
Stanley Deen, Bartley Meaders, Eugene Ford, Jack Conn, Harrell Webster and Joe Tom McKinley. Miss Horn was assisted in entertaining
by Misses Clyde Kitchens and Katherine Wilenick.

Engagement Announced.

Miss Zuma Horton entertained last Monday evening with an announcement party at which was made public the engagement and approaching marriage of Miss Ruby Patricia West of this city to Cecil
R. Dickerson of Oklahoma City.

The evening was spent informally.
A color scheme of pink and white predominated with cut pink and white roses in vases present in profusion. Red-haired kewpies dressed as brides were stationed on the canted piece on the dining table and a shower of rose petals was around them.

Favors consisted of cut outs of the bride and groom with an announcement on each of the names and the date of the marriage, September 16. Miss West, the honoree, was presented with a beautiful bride's guest book.

Those present were limited to members of Pi Kappa Sigma sorority of East Central Teachers College, of which the honoree is a member,
and a few intimate friends of the bride-to-be.

Miss West and Mr. Dickerson were married September 16 at the home of Mrs. Lewis Carson in Tecumseh.
Mrs. Carson was formerly Miss Della Overturn of Shawnee and at one time was a student in the local college.
She also is a member of Pi Kappa Sigma sorority.

Mr. Dickerson, who was formerly proprietor of the Palm Garden here, is employed in Oklahoma City.

Bond Buyers Have 2 Days to Send Money or Forfeit Deposit

Unless the buyer of Ada's memorial hall bonds sends $110,000 to Charley Deaver, city treasurer, within the next two days, his cash bond of $2200 will be forfeited, it was announced this morning.

Money for the bonds is expected in at any time and, as soon as it is received the purchase of the site for the hall will be formally closed with the payment of the amount agreed on. With the purchase of the property formally closed, the sale of the old buildings on it can be executed and as soon as they are removed contractors can start work building the hall, commissioners said.

ADA BANKS SHOW
FINE CONDITION
IN NEW REPORTS

A year ago financial matters in Pontotoc county were blue indeed. The low price of cotton the year previous, the fall in the value of livestock and other farm products and then, to cap the misfortunes of the country, a clean sweep by the boll weevil, all combined to cast a deep clour of gloom over everything.

However, the old saying about the longest lane having a turn somewhere along its route held good here as is indicated by the reports of the four Ada banks.

It was a staggering load to carry their customers through such times, but the banks proved themselves able to do so and the statements show that they have come through the strain and are now on as firm a basis as any in Oklahoma or elsewhere.

One gratifying feature of the reports is the fact that since the reports early in July the deposits have grown about $45,000 instead of falling off as might ordinarily have been expected. The statements show combined deposits of $2,726,000 and ample cash resources to meet all demands. This, too, in the face of the fact that only a comparatively small amount of cotton has yet been marketed.

Eight Cases Result From Week-end Drag By City Policemen

Eight cases were up in police court over the week-end as a result of arrests on charges ranging from drunkenness to consorting. Fines assessed totalled $70.00 for the week-end business and more than $120 for the past week.

Rigid enforcement of ordinances during the past week kept the number of cases to a minimum, police said. Little trouble was encountered during the recent county fair. Police took extra precautions during the celebration, as such events generally result in a larger run of business than usual.

Among the collections in Buckingham palace is the favorite doll of Queen Alexandria, given to her by her father.

LENGTHY TARIFF DEBATE TO COME TO END TUESDAY

(By the Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Sept. 19.—The longest and bitterest tariff fight in the history of the American congress was to end at 4 p. m. today under a unanimous consent agreement for a vote by the senate at that hour on the adoption of the conference report on the administration bill. Favorable action was regarded as a foregone conclusion as was the approval of the measure by President Harding.

Beg Your Pardon.

In an editorial on the county fair in Monday's paper the News through an oversight failed to mention the Good Road Motor club's part in promoting and backing the races. As this was a splendid feature of the fair the club deserves credit for its enterprise in arranging for the races.

WORLD TO HONOR HUMANE PIONEER

Richard Martin Conceived Law for Protection of Dumb Animals.

(By the Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Sept. 19.—Braving the opposition of colleagues and opponents, Richard Martin introduced into the British parliament an act providing a punishment for the "ill-treatment of cattle" and by the force of his personality forced its passage as a law.

Humane societies throughout England and the United States are observing in various forms the centenary of the enactment of this first law for the protection of animals from cruelty, which, for the first time in any country, made it unlawful to abuse animals.

"Humanity" Martin, so named by King George IV because of his introduction and support of the law, was an intense Irish nobleman with immense estates in Galway, where he lived in the manner of a feudal lord when not attending parliament in London.

He was a man of infinite personal courage and a duelist of note. But with his courage and dueling proclivities was a genuine Irish humor, wild and turbulent at times. He always was a lover of animals and disliked ill-treatment of them as intensely as he loved the animals themselves.

Asked to Withdraw It
After introducing his bill, Martin was asked to withdraw it so that it could be amended and introduced at the following session. Speaking in opposition, one opponent declared he could not see why, under the terms of the bill, a punishment should not be affixed to the boiling of lobsters and the eating of live oysters.

To all opposition Martin replied with more vigorous support and made a strong appeal at the second reading. After his appeal, a vote was taken and the "ayes" stood 29 to 18 "noes".

To Martin also belongs the credit for the first conviction under the law he fostered. Martin himself appeared as complainant against a driver who had mercilessly beaten a donkey. The animal was dragged into court before the judge and Martin so impressed the court with the evidence of the donkey's bore of its master's cruelty that the driver was found guilty, much to the surprise of the many onlookers who had crowded into the courtroom.

Less than a year after Martin's death at Boulogne, France, in 1834, his original act was amended and bull and bear baiting and cock fighting were prohibited throughout the British Isle.

While credit is given the Great and General Court of Massachusetts, in 1641, for passing an act declaring that "no man shall exercise any tyranny toward any brute creatures which usually are kept for the use of man", Martin's act is recognized as the first law expressly forbidding ill-treatment of animals.

Two years after the passage of the act, Martin and some of his friends, realizing the law would be valueless without proper enforcement, organized the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals. Queen Victoria later giving her approval to the addition of the word "Royal" to the title. From this society originated first the American Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals and later the state societies.

"THE STORM" IS DYNAMIC FILM STORY
House Peters Stars in Screen Version of Great Stage Success

After all, a picture essentially is a story, and the plot therefore is the most important element. "The Storm" is the thing.

"The Storm" coming as a Universal-Jewell attraction starring House Peters, to the McSwain theatre Wednesday and Thursday was adapted from the New York stage sensation of the same name. Theatrical history was made by the play, written by Langdon McCormick. It is grippingly dramatic, and besides the elements of simple drama there is woven into it the theme of two kinds of fear that men may feel toward women.

One man in the triangle of the story is afraid of women because he knows nothing of them, he has never seen anything of them. He's a woodsman, primitive and honest.

The other is the product of London and Paris society. He fears the gentle sex because he has "seen too darned much of women."

The woman in the case is an innocent French Canadian girl, forced to live with the two men for four long months through being hemmed in by a snowstorm.

SLAYER OF "PERFECT LOVER" ESCAPES TRIAL IN SHADOW OF ELECTRIC CHAIR

Miss Marie "Peggy" Beal.

(By Central Press)
KANSAS CITY, Sept. 19.—Will Cameron Orr, county prosecutor here and hitherto almost an unknown, succeed where such brilliant prosecutors as Eddie Stanton of Cleveland, Thomas Lee Woolwine of Los Angeles, Forest Hughes of Oklahoma City, Phillip Van Cise of Denver, Matthew Brady of San Francisco and a host of others equally illustrious, have failed?

Will the comparative unknown succeed in sending a beautiful girl, accused of the murder of a man, to her death in the electric chair to satisfy the ends of justice?

The girl in Orr's case is Marie "Peggy" Beal accused of killing her sweetheart, F. Warren Anderson, Philadelphia clubman and termed "her perfect lover."

Orr himself is by no means certain. He has gone deep into the recent cases in which women have been defendants in murder cases and the deeper he has gone the more convinced he has become that American juries will not send a woman to her death regardless of the crime she may be guilty of.

He has reviewed the trial of Mrs. Catherine Kaber in Cleveland where Prosecutor Eddie Stanton had worked up a case against the murderess which appeared to be perfect and yet the jury refused to send her to the penitentiary death chair and he has studied the case of Madalyn Obenchain in Los Angeles in which two trials already have resulted in disagreements, and scores of other similar trials which ended in disagreements, acquittals or convictions in lesser degrees.

"Juries are made of men," Orr said in discussing his chances, "and men are made of clay. No matter what the crime I do not think American juries will exact the death penalty from a woman."

For this reason Orr has about decided to drop the death penalty charge against Miss Beal for one of second degree murder.

"If a prosecutor can make a jury believe that a beautiful woman is getting off light," Orr continued, "it may vote for conviction. Otherwise women go free and defeat the ends of justice."

Peggy is to go to trial soon. Her defense will be that she killed Anderson after he had told her that he intended to "break many girls' hearts."

"I killed him to save other girls" the defendant in Missouri's most sensational murder trial in years, will tell the jury.

Farmers' Column

By Byron Norrell

W. H. Sheppard of Oakman will exhibit some peanuts at the state fairs. He has five acres from which he expects to make about 100 bushels. He expects to thresh the crop and feed all he does not sell. He likes them fine for feed and uses quite a few for this purpose. Oakman has always been rather strong for peanuts and the first thresher ever brought to the county, so far as the News is informed, was bought by growers of that community.

Word comes from Union Valley that the dry weather cut the yield of sweet potatoes very badly. For a time after the rain about August 1 it looked like a bumper crop would be raised.

I have spoken before of the fair being a fine place for consumer and producer to meet. Here is a case in point: T. W. Kromer, after taking blue ribbons at Roff and two at the county fair on his Barred Rocks sold the entire entry at a very satisfactory price and booked several orders for eggs for spring delivery. Had he not exhibited his birds very few would have known that he had them. It would have been very much like the parable of putting a candle under a bushel.

Eggs and butter are scarce in Ada at present and buyers easy to find. However, the producers could do still better if they had a little ad in the Evening News. Such an ad costs little but has a great drawing power. People are willing to pay a good price for good stuff and when once in touch with a person who sells nothing else often become steady customers. When I was on the farm I often ran small ads when I had a surplus of some kind to sell and I always got results. This spring my wife has on two or three occasions run ads offering frying chickens for sale. As a result we could have sold several times the number we actually had.

GRAND JURY WILL PROBE SHOOTING OF PAIR AT O. C.

(By the Associated Press)
OKLAHOMA CITY, Sept. 19.—The county grand jury will investigate the shooting late yesterday at a hotel here of Mrs. R. R. Selby and John Riley, both 25 years old, it was announced today by County Attorney Hughes.

Mrs. Selby and Riley are at a hospital where their condition was said to be doubtful.

According to officers, statements of both indicated that Mrs. Selby shot Riley. They said a pistol which Mrs. Riley clutched in her hand when they arrived at the hotel, was used. A statement ascribed to the woman was to the effect that after shooting Riley he grabbed the gun and wounded her. Police say Riley denied this.

STATE CAN'T AID BRIDGE AT BYNG

Whitaker Says Road Must First be Designated State Highway.

Like Banquo's ghost, the Byng bridge prospect again bobbed up in the Lions Club meeting today. President Cunningham reminded the members that this is the next item on the agenda of the club, and we should keep it in mind.

Wm. L. Whitaker, as the chairman of the committee, reported that no state aid can be had until the road is designated as a state highway. This is not necessary, according to M. O. Matthews and others present, in order to get federal aid.

Hon. J. C. Looney, democratic nominee for state senator from this district, a former resident of Kona-wa and a citizen of Ada now, told about the advantages of both Seminole and Pontotoc counties such a bridge would afford. He is of the opinion that the counties would mutually profit and neither would in any way be injured. Having been a citizen of both counties, he looked at the matter with a broader view.

Students are Placed

The athletic committee, headed by Sam Scheinberg, reported on the results of obtaining places for the college and high school. Nine college students have been placed, and two high school students will be placed soon. Donations will be asked from some of the business men to help the matter along.

Guests of members of the club include Rev. Charles Widney, with T. B. Blake; Hugh L. Thompson of Denison, with Marshall Harris; and Dr. Charles N. Berry, with J. B. Sledge. Rev. Widney is the new minister of the Episcopal church. Mr. Thompson is a representative of the Lingo Leeper Lumber Company, and Dr. Berry is from Oklahoma City and is visiting the family of his father in law, P. A. Norris.

Robert Wimbish, official tail twister for new Lions, introduced a new member, J. U. Criswell. Criswell insisted it was easier to set up the club to cigars than to make a speech. So the speech went begging.

ADA HIGH MAY HAVE ONLY ONE GAME HERE UNLESS FANS SUPPORT SCHOOL

In a statement issued this morning Prof. W. A. Hill of the high school announced the approaching sale of athletic tickets. He explained the reason for the ticket sale, and what the money will be used for. Following is the statement in full:

"In a few days a select group of students from the high school will appear offering to the people downtown season tickets for the football games to be played on the local gridiron. This move is made necessary for several reasons:

"1. At present only one game is scheduled on the home gridiron; that with Okmulgee.

"2. No more will be scheduled for the home field until the management of the school is assured of the amount of money available from the sale of tickets. This can be determined only by the advanced sale.

"3. The high school desires to give the people all the games they want to see, and the ticket sale is believed to be the best method of finding out how strong is the desire for games.

"4. The high school is not going to go in debt for football this year. The game must pay its way and money must be in sight before the schedule is completed.

"All the regular out of town games have been scheduled, assuring the players of the usual number of trips, but home games will be scheduled as the fans demand them.

"It is to be hoped the public will bear in mind that this is not a 'give' in the ordinary sense of the word. It is merely giving an opportunity to those who wish to express their desires in regard to the amount the school is to spend for football.

"Those who sell tickets are instructed to use every courtesy in selling and in no case to argue with prospective buyers—merely to serve those who wish to be served.

"The sale of tickets will be closed Saturday and on the basis of returns, the management will proceed with the completion of a schedule for home games."
